

1 sentence also provides, doesn't it, and isn't this the 2 primary and indeed the sole intent of the section, to 3 provide that all other sections, Dr. Pullen, all other 4 departments must be headed by a single executive?

5 THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct.

6 DELEGATE SYBERT: Even Natural Resources, which 7 might include tidewater fisheries, upland game and fish, 8 four or five other bureaus. It also would have to be 9 headed by a single executive, if this amendment passes?

10 Isn't that correct?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct, Delegate Sybert.

12 Does any delegate desire to speak in favor
13 of the amendment? Delegate Scanlan?

14 DELEGATE SCANLAN: I am in favor of the amendment
15 in both its parts, but I think in yielding to Mrs. Maurer's 16 request that her amendment not be divided as restating the 17 question as the Chair has done, that the Chair has actually 18 done a disservice both to Mrs. Maurer and to the Convention.

19 There are really three categories of the votes
20 here. First, there are those who would want all principal
21 departments headed by a single officer, with no boards
